What NPCA offers YOU:

To complement internationally recognised RYA shore-based and practical courses, NPCA offers:

*A programme of friendly sailing 'Rally' weekends throughout the year – usually three on the Solent and one on the Norfolk Broads – a low-cost way to get experience 'on-salt-water'

*A locally based programme – Autumn to Spring - of evening talks by acknowledged experts and experienced salt water cruising skippers.

*Personalised sailing and skippering development advice and links to Sea-schools, Yacht-charterers, Equipment suppliers, providers of Supplementary Training (e.g. First Aid at Sea, Yacht and Engine maintenance, Marine Radio, GIS and Radar use, AstroNav, and all you need for happy yachting)

Where else in landlocked Midlands can you find top cruising expertise and great company, both on and off the water?

Chris, an NPCA 'Coastal Skipper'

Outward bound adventure...

Competitive sailing...

Gentle Broads motorboating...

In recent seasons NPCA members of various levels of skill and experience have:

*Enjoyed social and friendly competition at our weekend 'Rallies' on the Solent and quiet motorboating on the Norfolk Broads...

*Circumnavigated the British Isles...

*Sailed to the Baltic Sea and back via 'The Riddle of the Sands' islands and the Kiel Canal...

*Chartered yachts around sunlit Greek, Turkish and Adriatic Coasts and breezy Caribbean Islands...

*Crossed the Atlantic to sail the coast of America from Florida to Vancouver via Panama...

*Entered the famous 'Round the Island Race' and done well in their class...

*Explored the Clyde and Western Isles, crossed the Channel to the Channel Islands and North Brittany and enjoyed the lovely rivers and 'swathways' of East Anglia...

*taken part in First Aid, Marine Radio and Sea Survival courses...

*and much, much more...
